Chapter One

Draculas, Frankensteins, and Werewolves!

My name is Nate the Great.
I am a detective.
My dog, Sludge, is a detective too.
Today Sludge and I had big plans.
To do nothing.
Suddenly I saw something.
There was a note under the door
of my room.
It was written in scribbles.
I knew it was from my mother.
She scribbles when she is in a hurry.

I read it.

"I love those monsters,"
I said to Sludge.
"Strawberry Draculas,
Chocolate Frankensteins,
Cinnamon Werewolves.
My mother hates the werewolves,
but she bakes them for me anyway.
I must find that recipe."

I, Nate the Great,
had never solved a case
for my mother.
My mother knew
where everything was.
Until now.
"We will look inside,"
I said. "Perhaps my mother
did not look everywhere in the house."

I, Nate the Great, liked this case.
I could stay home.
I would not have to see
Rosamond or her four cats.
I would not have to see
Annie's dog, Fang.
I could make as many pancakes
as I wanted.

Chapter Two

The Long and Short of It

Sludge and I went to the kitchen.
My mother kept her recipes there.
Each short recipe was written on one side of a card.
Each long recipe was written on one side
of a long piece of paper.
